SHEWMAKER IS TOP WINNER IN ESSAY CONTEST

Mackville Junior Is Awarded $25 Savings Bond. Willisburg Girl Was Runner-up. Winning Essay Enters State,

BAKER PLACED THIRD

Marvin S. Shewmaker, a junior in the Mackville High School, was top winner in the District soil essay contest recently conducted by the Washington County Soil District in cooperation with The Courier-Journal and Times, the Kentucky Association and State Department of Education.

Shewmaker's essay consisted of 825 words; the subject: "How Forest Conservation Can Benefit my Community." It was well worded and showed considerable thought and careful study of his subject. He was awarded a $25.00 U. S. Savings Bond.

Mackville Girl Is Winner In Homemaking Contest

MISS SHELBY JEAN COYLE

The Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow in Mackville High School is Shelby Jean Coyle, age 16, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Coyle.

Miss Coyle received the highest score in a written examination which tested the home-making knowledge and attitudes of senior girls in the graduating class. She will be entered in competition to name this state's candidate for the title of All-American Homemaker of Tomorrow and will also be considered for the runner-up award in the state. She will receive a golden award pin designed by Trifari and the school will receive a "Betty Crocker Good and Easy Cook Book."

Runner-up in the contest was Miss Brenda Griffey, junior in the Willisburg High School, and Sherrill Baker, junior in the Mackville High School placed third.

These students will be given cash awards of $7.50, $5.00 and $2.50, respsctively by the Washington County Soil Conservation District.
